- Davide is excellent in explaining concepts and the problem set in the classes. I really appreciate the fact that he starts the class off with a summary/overview/explanation of the weeks' content, which helps me to consolidate my learning a lot better. When he explains these concepts he draws from real-life examples which is so helpful. Also he is quite funny which makes the classes so engaging. He is also very attentive towards students' body language/facial expression, which helps when there's still something very confusing and he addresses it very well. Davide also is very open and happy to answer questions which makes me not scared to participate in class. It also seems like he knows all his students and their names pretty well which is very great!
- Does a great job of contextualizing the problem sets and making sure that we understand the content.
- Excellent teacher

- Helped by making classes interactive, with real-life examples, and really cared about ensuring students understood the concepts. Very helpful during office hours as well. Best class teacher I have had at LSE
- He makes our lessons both engaging and insightful

- His overview always makes me feel hard concepts easy
- I like how he doesn't just read off the problem set answers in class, he also goes off the answers content and makes sure we understand the fundamental concepts, as well as covering the answers. He gives funny and engaging examples, and gets the class involved by asking us loads of questions, which definitely helps our learning. I think he's a great teacher.
